Drawings

1. Figure 1 should be designated by a legend such as --Prior Art-- because only that which is old is illustrated. See MPEP § 608.02(g). Corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1-5, 8-9 and 25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over El-Hamamsy et al (US 4,910,439) previously cited, in view of Masuda (US 4,874,036) new cited. El-Hamamsy discloses a high intensity discharge electrodeless lamp comprising a cases (32) in which inner components are mounted; and a fan housing (F, Figure below) having at least one at least one inlet port (A) and at least two discharge ports (82), but does not disclose discharge ports having different discharge flow rates. Masuda discloses a fan having discharge ports (6 and 20, Figures 2-3) having different discharge flow rates, since they have different port sizes. It would have been obvious to one ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to utilize in El-Hamamsy a fan having discharge ports having different discharge flow rates as taught by Masuda in order to cool heat generation components in the case. With regard to claim 25, Masuda discloses the sectional area of a first discharge port (20) is greater than the sectional area of a second discharge port (6).

4. Claims 6-7 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Amendment

5. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-9 and 25 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
6. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Quang T. Van whose telephone number is 571-272-4789. The examiner can normally be reached on 8:00Am 5:00Pm M-F.
